Scapes Realty India has formed a partnership with EPI[K]UREAN hospitality to launch India's first high-end villa hotel or Villotel in Siolim, Goa. The JV will be called EPI[K]UREAN Amala. "We want to start a Villotel branded chain. We will be managing the property like a five-star hotel. Guests can book a spacious villa with bedrooms, each on a separate floor," said Sameer Mutreja, director, Scapes Realty. Talking about the JV with EPI[K]UREAN hospitality, he added, "We wanted to partner with a chain who had the expertise to manage boutique properties, we needed a specialist." After Goa the company is looking at Shimla, Mysore, Alwar and later also Kerala. Another project in Goa is a holistic wellness resort in a villa complex.
